

John Myers, MD, FACEP, FAAP

President – Questcare Medical Services, P.A.

Dr. John Myers is the president of Questcare Medical Services. Questcare is a premier patient care organization based in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex providing emergency medicine, pediatrics and hospital services in multiple healthcare facilities. The Company currently employs approximately 100 physicians and 40 mid-level providers and provides medical services to 14 different facilities.

Dr. Myers received his medical degree from Texas Tech University Health Science Center. He completed a residency in emergency medicine at the University of California – Irvine Medical Center. Subsequently, Dr. Myers completed a fellowship in pediatric emergency medicine at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Prior to his current position as president of Questcare, Dr. Myers served for eight years as the chief of emergency services at Medical City Dallas Hospital in Dallas. At Medical City, Dr. Myers was the medical director of the emergency department, the clinical decision unit/Chest Pain Center, Pediatric Hospitalist Program and point of care lab services.

Dr. Myers is Board Certified in both emergency medicine and pediatric emergency medicine. He is a fellow of the American College of Emergency Medicine and the American Academy of Pediatrics. He is a member of the HCA Clinical Cardiovascular Management Network and Emergency Department Advisory Board and is the president of the Texas Chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians. Dr. Myers has numerous publications and is a frequent lecturer on many aspects of emergency medicine.